QPAC invites children, ages 8-14, to participate in a new dance workout offered on Saturdays. Much like the popular adult version of this program, choreography as seen on Broadway, and in the movies, is re-created to provide a fun way of working out.

The workshop, which runs for 5 weeks in the fall and 5 weeks in the spring, will be taught by professional dance choreographers that reflect New York City's multi-ethnic communities. Each workshop is shaped to the level of each group, and participants receive feedback from the instructor.

Children must be accompanied by an adult

Tickets can be purchased online: www.visitQPAC.org or by calling the box office (718) 631-6311.

A purchased ticket reserves you a spot! Space is limited.

Individuals of all abilities are welcome - Do what you can!

Participants should dress comfortably.

Sponsored by Council Member Rory Lancman to assist in providing affordable, cultural & artistic programs in the community.

Gotta Dance may not be included as part of a subscription.
